9 CHRISTIAN WALKER,

10 Petitioner,

11 vs.

12 BRIAN WILLIAMS, et al.,

13 Respondents.

Case No. 2:08-CV-01551-PMP-(GWF)

14

ORDER

15 Petitioner has submitted a motion for partial dismissal (#54) of the grounds for relief
16 that the court determined were unexhausted. The court will dismiss those grounds.

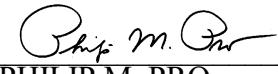

17 The court also will dismiss grounds 1 and 6. As the court explained, grounds 1(b)
18 and 6 are procedurally defaulted. Order, pp. 5, 6 (#46). Petitioner had argued that the ineffective
19 assistance of appellate counsel was cause to excuse the procedural default of those grounds.
20 However, petitioner did not exhaust his claim of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel—it is
21 ground 5, which petitioner asked the court to dismiss—and an unexhausted claim of ineffective
22 assistance of counsel cannot be good cause to excuse a procedural default. See Murray v. Carrier,
23 477 U.S. 478, 488-89 (1986). See also Order, pp. 6-7 (#46). Therefore, the court will dismiss
24 grounds 1(b) and 6 as procedurally defaulted. The court also explained that ground 1(a), which is 25 the remaining part of ground 1, is a claim that the state court violated state law, which is not
26 addressable in federal habeas corpus. Order, p. 7 (#46). Consequently, the court will dismiss
27 ground 1(a).

28

1 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that petitioner's motion for partial dismissal (#54) is
2 GRANTED. Grounds 1, 4(f), 5, 6 are DISMISSED with prejudice. Ground 8 is DISMISSED to
3 the extent that it incorporates the claims in grounds 4(f) and 5.

4 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that respondents shall have forty-five (45) days to
5 file and serve an answer to the first amended petition (#22). The answer shall comply with Rule 5
6 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts. Petitioner shall 7 then have forty-five (45) days from the date on which the answer is served to file a reply.

8 DATED: March 14, 2011.
